Description: This classic stage of the Acropolis, known in its glorified past as “Karoutes”, is running this year in the opposite direction compared to 2017. Smart, technical and sometimes pretty fast, it now starts from Prosilio village and then enters the beautiful fir forest. After its seventh kilometer it descends with some pretty fast corners, before finishing at the tarmac connecting Amfissa and Agia Efthimia.

Note: Organisers do not suggest access roads to the S.S. “Nea Amfissa”, but at the stage’s finish there is a large parking space available [see green indication on the map]
